Grammar & Writing

To gain the ability to think you must first learn to write - writing is formalized thinking.

ABOUT THIS CLASS

Writing is a skill that you will utilize for the rest of your life. Being a good writer means that you have the skill and capability to carefully choose the correct words and put them in the correct order to get the thoughts that are swirling around in your head onto paper in a way that makes sense to a reader. This class looks to develop those writing muscles and turn students into writing machines, with an important focus on structure, grammar, and good habits. This is the class that will teach you how to write effectively in college and communicate efficiently in your workplace. We will spend time developing both fiction and non-fiction writing skills, turning your words into a vivid oasis, set to pierce the imagination of those who read them!!

WHAT WE'LL LEARN

1. Grammar and sentence structure
2. Fiction Writing and Storytelling
3. Non-fiction writing and research
4. Presenting ideas and strengthening your arguments.
