About the Teacher:

Mari-Clare Wolz has homeschooled for over 17 years and graduated with an art education degree. She has 4 kids, 2 of which have many food sensitivities which has caused her to be more aware of what we put into our bodies and a real concern for health. She enjoys teaching eager minds that want to learn to cook and bake fun recipes! She feels it is a very useful tool that everyone should learn starting at an early age.
