About the teacher:

Mari-Clare Wolz is a graduate of WMU as an art education teacher. She has been homeschooling over 20 years as well as teaching public and private art lessons for over 11 years. She has developed a passion for history as she taught her kids growing up. She loves to incorporate projects and fun art crafts into her lessons when teaching history.

About the class:

We will focus on American history including the Vikings, to the forming of the colonies, the American Revolution, both World Wars, government treaties along the way and much more! We will be memorizing all the states of America, playing games, and doing many art and craft projects along the way.

LAMP families owe the yearly balance of what LAMP doesn't cover by 1-6-27. Required to self-pay for any missed LAMP payments due to student dropping after third class or not meeting LAMP requirements.
