ADVENTURES IN AMERICAN LITERATURE!

For 6th – 12th Graders – Can count as English, Literature, or Elective

Objective: To provide students with a comprehensive understanding of the richness of America's literary heritage

We'll study the life and times of the authors and the significance of their works, discussing such literary techniques as irony, symbolism, hyperbole, mood, tone, theme, and others. We'll discover the importance literature played in forming our American values. I intend this class to prepare students well for college as well as providing them with the rich moral values that are being lost in today's culture.

Content: No textbook needed - A comprehensive syllabus w/study guides is included in the tuition:

Semester One: Edwards, Hawthorne, Paine, Jefferson, Franklin, Cooper, Irving, Poe, Emerson, Thoreau, Bryant, Longfellow, Melville, & Whitman
