Course Overview:

In this class for 7-8 year olds, we will learn the skills to really start discussing, thinking about, and comprehending our reading. To do this, we will spend focused time with books! Time to practice skills, such as story structure, making connections, and asking questions, is so important. The goal is to increase our independent reading stamina and understanding. Students will also learn to differentiate between fiction and non-fiction books and compare/contrast them. Each week, I'll have a variety of "just right" books for your child to read. "Just right" books are not too easy or too challenging. They provide both familiar and new vocabulary so your child can continue to learn.

The Instructor:

Melissa Wilcox has a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from Western Michigan University. She loved teaching 4th grade in Sturgis for 6 years before becoming a stay-at-home mom. She has been married to her husband for 15 years and homeschools her 3 children ages 12, 9, and 5. This coming year will be their third year homeschooling and second year as a REACH family.
