

American Girl

Instructor: Sarah Daisy Lindmark Contact: sarahdaisy3@hotmail.com

Ages: 8-12 When: 5th hour, 2:30-3:55pm

Course Description

Join us in American Girl class to meet new friends, read and discuss historically-based books about amazing young girls, and create beautiful and treasured art projects. Through an American Girl's perspective, we can visualize and discuss what it could have been like living in a different American era. By using this wonderful age-appropriate literature as a spring board, students will explore history, grow in communication and confidence, and nurture friendships along the way.

This year, we'll be reading about three American Girls. Samantha, a compassionate and kind girl from the turn of the century, 1904. Melody, a peaceful and musical girl that lived in Detroit, Michigan in 1964. And, Felicity, an adventurous and animal-loving girl from the pre-Revolutionary War period, 1774.

Your daughter is welcome and encouraged to bring her American Girl doll or any 18" doll with her to class. I love teaching this amazing girl's class and I look forward to this year's historical literature adventures, great class discussions, art projects, and new friendships.

I hope your daughter can join us!

Meet the Instructor

Sarah Daisy Lindmark has a BA in Art Education K-12. She has homeschooled her two daughters for 8+ years and this will be her 6th year teaching homeschool classes at Lighthouse. She is the co-founder and director of Shine On Malawi, a non-profit that helps orphans and vulnerable children attend school and 1,300 students receive a daily meal in rural Malawi, Africa. She loves to go camping with her family, care for orphans, tell stories through photographs, and drink good coffee.
